

Name _____

Book Report for Non-Fiction

1. TITLE AND AUTHOR

Write down the author's name and title of the work. (5 pts.)

2. GENRE

Check one of the following to indicate the genre of your history book (5 pts.)

- | | |
|---|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> biography | <input type="checkbox"/> general history |
| <input type="checkbox"/> autobiography | <input type="checkbox"/> scientific history (astronomy, sociology, etc.) |
| <input type="checkbox"/> historical fiction | <input type="checkbox"/> other |

3. THINGS LEARNED

Write down five things that you learned about history from this book. You may focus on things such as types of clothing, manners and customs, kinds of food, occupations, and social relationships. (50 pts.)

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

4. SETTING

What is the setting of this book? Be sure to tell both time and place. (15 pts.)

5. THEME OR PURPOSE

In one sentence write the theme or major purpose of the book. (15 pts.)

6. FICTIONAL ELEMENTS (OPTIONAL)

In one sentence write down the kind of fictional elements that are included in your work (dialog, for instance). (5 pts.)

7. BIBLIOGRAPHY (5 pts.)

Write down the bibliographic information of the book. Write down the author's name, title of the book, place of publication, publisher, and date of publication. If the book is a re-print or new edition of a classic, follow the second example. (10 pts.)

Stanley, Diane. Peter the Great. New York: William Morrow and Company, Inc., 1999.

Abbott, Jacob. Alexander the Great. 1876; New Ed. New York: Harper and Brothers, 1902.

