

B is for Bear

Assignment 33

- phonics and reading. Complete Lesson 33 in your B is for Bear textbook, volume 2. You will be reading poetry this week: Robert Frost (pictured on the right) and Emily Dickinson. A college professor, who was my academic advisor in college, had been taught by Robert Frost. He told me that Mr. Frost used to take him and the other students outside and recite or read his poetry while sitting on a rock!
- handwriting. Complete Lesson 33 of your handwriting book.
- dictation. Complete the following dictation.

EXERCISE A

At dawn Ross set out on a voyage.
I guess that this dress will do.
The savage left the village.
The gracious host gave a delicious meal.
Ross made a fuss about the delicious cabbage.

EXERCISE B

Tom gave his mom a kiss and went to class.
Amy made a mess, but did no damage.
Do not rummage through her mess.
The vicious bird has blue plumage.
Look both ways before you cross the street!
