

English Literature and History

Assignment 23

- poetry memorization. Memorize stanzas 1–4 of Christina Rossetti’s “Another Spring.” There are six stanzas in this poem.
- literature. Complete Lesson 23 in your study guide as well as the accompanying reading. This week you will reading works by John Keats and John Clare.
- speech night. This coming week, you must write down what character you are portraying and give an idea of what you will be saying in about five sentences. You must be sure to complete the assignment the first week of March (see below).
- history. Read English History Chapter 16 and answer the questions in your study guide.
- picture. The picture on this assignment page is of John Clare, one of the less famous but nonetheless talented Romantic Period Poets.

Long Range Assignments

- speech night. Speech Night will involve a play on the various periods, with an introduction as to when would you like to live, describing the period. Your dramatic monolog will involve telling the audience about the literary work, at the same revealing who you are. The speech will be from 1–1 1/2 pages typed, double-spaced—no more. The assignment is due the first week of March.
