

Personal Narrative

Assignment 16

- Read Three Months under the Snow, chapter 3 and 4 and do all of the study guide material, including memorizing the vocabulary, completing the vocabulary exercises, answering the multiple choice questions, reviewing writing focus, writing your journal entry, and reading the theme on providence. Remember to study the material in the study guide. Always be ready for a quiz!
- Memorize William Wordsworth's "We Are Seven," stanzas 1–2.
- Continue working on your book report. The format sheet has been posted on the online assignment page.
- If you have not emailed me your ballad, please send it sometime this week.

Long Range Assignments

- The book report will be due the fourth Friday in January. The book report format sheet is online.
- The new narrative will be due the third Friday of February. The narrative will be based on one of the journal entry assignments given in our study of Three Months under the Snow.
- The new narrative will be due on the third Friday of February. The narrative will be based on one of the journal entry assignments given in our study of Three Months under the Snow. The narrative will be used for speech night!

