

Survey of English Literature and History Assignment 4

- Memorize stanza 1 of Christina Rossetti's "Buds and Babies."
- Remember that we will be having our observance of Battle of Hastings Day on Friday, October 13 (the actual date is October 14), weather permitting. The Walter Family will provide the cake—icing and all! You can look at past Battle of Hastings observances here.
- Write your comparison essay on King Lear. Remember the format. I have posted an example comparison essay comparing the French and English during the French and Indian War online.
- Read Alfred Tennyson's "Lady of Shalott" and answer the questions in your study guide. Listen to The Lady of Shalott.
- Read Shakespeare's "Cymbeline" and answer questions in your study guide.
- Read and answer questions for English History Chapter 3.
- The picture on this assignment sheet is of Julius Caesar. Julius Caesar believed he was descended from Iulus, son of the Trojan prince Aeneas.

Long-term Assignments

- Heads up: On the fourth Friday of October we will have a test on chapters 1-6 of English history and all of the literature covered in the Celtic Period. The questions will be taken from the study guides, notes and the material that you have read. If you have any questions about uncorrected study guide material, please let me know in class. The student who gets the best grade in class will become king or queen of the class!
- Get ready to celebrate the Battle of Hastings!
