

ANSWER KEY FOR LESSON 15 OF C IS FOR COTTAGE

READING QUESTIONS A

1. a
2. a
3. c
4. a
5. c

READING QUESTIONS B

1. a
2. b
3. a
4. a
5. c

LITERARY WORDS: METONYMY

Metonymy is just one kind of metaphor, which is a figure of speech in which two things are being compared. In a metonymy, however, the comparison involves a word representing something very closely associated with the thing or person being named.

WRITING EXERCISE: EXPOSITORY PARAGRAPH

Expository writing is one of the most useful kinds of composition for younger people to learn. Mastering the expository format will encourage students to think more logically and make their writing and speaking more coherent and logical. Please have your child bring the composition to class so that I can correct it at home.

PHONICS EXERCISE A

1. a
2. a
3. c
4. c
5. b
6. a
7. a
8. c
9. c
10. c

PHONICS EXERCISE B

1. approaching
2. load
3. loathsome
4. boat
5. cloak

GRAMMAR EXERCISE A

1. I found your papers, Lizzy.
2. Anna, how many little felt mice have you made?
3. Why did your mentor rebuke you so harshly, Raphael?
4. Did you hear, Emma, that you have to clean the room now?
5. You have been living like a hermit, Lucy.
6. Look at your muddy boots, Joseph.
7. I think, Elijah, that you should ask your father before you make your decision.
8. Wouldn't it be pleasant, Evelyn, if we took a boat ride this afternoon?
9. Will you leave some pizza for me, Micah?
10. Nadiya, where did you put my new biography of Thoreau?

GRAMMAR EXERCISE B

1. Tim, you forgot that Jim, Susan and Lily were coming!
2. We sang, laughed and talked the whole evening.
3. Please wipe off the table, wash the dishes and clean the kitchen countertops.
4. I wanted to go because I had things to do, but my friend wanted me to stay.
5. I can't read your handwriting, Tim.
6. What were you doing, George, when I was calling for your help?
7. I wanted to read and relax, but I first had to do my homework, clean my room and eat dinner.
8. He had been a teacher, but took on a new profession.
9. I quickly ate my pasta, cleared the table and sat down to read my book.
10. Even though the road trip was tedious, Susan, we had a long, pleasant and entertaining conversation.