

English Literature and History

Assignment 32

- This week you will review for the coming literature test by completing and studying Lesson 32. Remember that at least 50% of the questions will be from this lesson. The test will be given this Friday. You will have 30 minutes to take it—no more.
- The picture on this assignment sheet is of George VI (above right), who was the brother of Edward VIII and his successor after he abdicated. The line goes this way after Queen Victoria: Edward VII, George V, Edward VIII, George VI, Elizabeth II, Charles III (current monarch).

Long-Range Assignments

- test. Study for the comprehensive literature test, which will be given and graded on the last day of class. 50% of the questions on the test will be taken from material contained in the last lesson of the study guide. The test will include five sections: 1) authors and titles 2) literary terms 3) details of the stories: characters/plot/themes 4) vocabulary 5) literary periods 6) Gerard Manley Hopkins' "Binsey Poplars"
