

Assignment 10
Writing Seminar

- Continue writing your play. Remember that it is a parody in which you exaggerate a common, everyday experience and by doing so, make it ridiculous and create humor.
- Read the excerpt from Twelfth Night. Remember what the scene is about. Olivia's servants are playing a trick on the pompous, self-righteous Malvolio, making him believe that his mistress is in love with him. Maria has written a letter in her name that full of love for an unknown person, which Malvolio thinks is himself. The picture on the right is of the character Malvolio.

