Long Range Assignment

- speech night. I will be announcing the date of speech night as soon as possible. Tentatively, it is set for the third Friday of April at 6:30 p.m., but I will have to wait to hear back from the church that I have put in a request to. After I have revised what you have written and have returned your speeches by email, you can start memorizing, unless I have directions for you to do a second draft. If you have not emailed your speech yet, please do so as soon as possible.
- book report. The book report, you will remember, is due on the third week of March.
