

Classic Works Assignment 32

- speech night. Continue working on your speech night speeches. Remember that clarity and volume are the most important aspects of delivery. If the audience does not hear or understand you, your dialogue is completely lost!
- reading. You will be given two weeks to read Act V of William Shakespeare's Midsummer Night's Dream. We will not be going over it next week.
- questions on reading. Answer the study guide questions on the online assignment page (under "Materials Needed"). They will not be due until the following week.

The poet's eye, in a fine frenzy rolling,
Doth glance from heaven to Earth, from Earth to heaven,
And as imagination bodies forth
The forms of things unknown, the poet's pen
Turns them to shapes and gives to airy nothing
A local habitation and a name.
—Theseus, Act 5, scene 1, lines 12–18

Remember that this assignment is due on May 29, when we go over both Acts IV and V. This week concentrate solely on your speech by practicing it several times a day.
