

Personal Narrative Assignment 12

- Memorize Christina Rossetti's "Bitter for Sweet," stanza 1.
- Read Benjamin Franklin, "A Way to Become Perfect" and complete all of the study guide material.
- Assemble background information for your biography, due the week after the winter break. Here is how you go about it: Take at least three pieces of information mentioned in your interview and research it. Write down what you learn in about three to eight sentences. You will then be incorporating this information in your biography.
- Complete your second narrative based on one of your journal entries.
- Complete one more stanza of your ballad. You should have three completed for the next class.
