

C is for Cottage

Assignment 31

Handwriting

Complete Lesson 31 of your handwriting.

Dictation

Teachers should review the following before beginning the dictation: 1) the silent igh words 2) sion words 3) the homophones they're, their, and there, and your and you're.

EXERCISE A

1. They're having a discussion tonight.
2. The dogs were out and their barking frightened them.
3. Your vision is very good.
4. They made a slight revision in their plans.
5. Why was there such confusion last night?

EXERCISE B

1. You're hearing a nightingale singing.
2. Your sister was frightened by the nightmare.
3. They're delighted to go.
4. The mighty knights fell from their horses.
5. Look at the light over there!

Reading, Phonics and Grammar

Complete all of the material found in Lesson 31.

Poetry

Memorize stanzas 1–3 of “Say Not the Struggle Naught Avaieth” by Arthur Hugh Clough (pronounced KLUF).