

U. S. History Assignment 7

1. Read Abeka history, chapter 6 on the War for Independence.
2. Study the people, places and terms at the end of the chapter.
3. Get excited: this week I am going to allow you to get more practice in writing history essays! Answer the (official College Board) DBQ question, "In what ways did ideas and values..." Remember to refer to the documents when answering the question and reflect on 1) the author of the document and his or her cultural, intellectual, and social background, and how that background may have influenced the writing of the document 2) the author's bias 3) how far after the events was the document written 4) audience of document.
4. The picture on this assignment page is of portrait by John Singleton Copley in which Adams is pointing to the Massachusetts Charter, a constitution that protected the peoples' rights.

