

Assignment 26

Writing Seminar

- Write the fourth chapter of your novel. Remember our discussion of “interest” in a novel, such as the interest of an idea, character or—as we discussed this week—chemical reactions. This week, I would like you to focus on the main character. Are your characters vivid enough for readers to imagine meetings or interactions between them?
- I still have not received all the blogs! Please send them to me ASAP.
 1. Book burning and book banning in the United States as a response to pressure from the Woke culture.’
 2. NASA’s recent exploration of Mars using the Perseverance Rover.
 3. Iran’s Dissident group uncovering another nuclear site.
 4. Any topic of your choice in response to recent events (except Covid).
