

Assignment 6

Writing Seminar

- Follow these directions for the short story:
 - Write backwards: think of the conclusion of the story first.
 - Create an effect: Think of an effect that you want to create; it can be sorrow, humor, etc.
 - Think of length: Before writing your work, think of how long your work will be.
 - Think of moral or truth that you want to express: Think of a truth that follows the effect that you have created.
 - Think of a plot.
- Read Edgar Allan Poe's "Principles of Composition."
