

Greek III

Assignment 24

- Quotation. Here is a quotation that might go against the grain of your thinking: Εὐλόγει πάντας, or “Speak well of everyone.” How do you think that quotation applies to common, practical, everyday life?
- Grammar and Translation. Study Gleason and Atherton, chapters 29 and 30, which goes over indirect discourse. Note that there are no translation exercises for Lesson 29.
- Review tenses in the indicative, subjunctive and imperative.

Εὐλόγει πάντας.