

Drama, Writing and Speech Assignment 26

- This week review Evangeline. We will focus this week on Part II this coming Friday. I would like you to find examples of the following literary devices in Evangeline, Part 2 and tell their effect or how they are used to support to the theme of the poem: anaphora, mood, imagery, allusion, symbol, foreshadowing, personification, simile, foreshadowing, euphony/alliteration. You will get into groups next week and discuss your ideas and then present them to the class the week after the break. Also, be ready to be quizzed on the content of this week's reading (Part 2) this coming Friday.
- If you have not yet handed in your musings essay, please hand it in as soon as you can! The example topics may be found on Assignment 22.
- For those who have yet to hand in their speech, please do so as soon as possible. For those who have already handed it in, please make the revisions I suggested (if any). For those who are finished the assignment, you can already begin memorizing the speech.
- This coming Friday evening at 6:00 we will have our "King Lear" get together. Be ready to explain your project to the class. Also, we will be watching a performance of the play. A meal will be provided, including gluten free options.
