

Assignment

English Literature and History

Students will be preparing for speech night by practicing memorizing their dramatic monolog (or narrative). There is no other assignment. I will be listening to students deliver their dramatic monologs this coming Friday. Those who have not yet revised their speeches, please return them as soon as you can, and I will try to correct them immediately and return them within the day.

Students need to do the following:

- memorize their dramatic monolog
- make sure that their words are clearly spoken
- make sure that they are loud enough for the audience to hear
- work on the proper intonation to communicate the meaning
- practice saying the dramatic monolog everyday
