

English Literature and History Assignment 16

- Memorize Parts 1–4 of Percy Bysshe Shelley’s sonnet, “Ozymandias.”
- Read Frances Burney, “Being Chased by the King” and complete the study guide material on the journal account. Also read Hannah More, “Tawney Rachel” and complete the study guide questions.
- Read English History Chapter 16 and answer the questions in the study guide.
- When James Stuart became king in 1603, a new union was formed between England and Scotland. The union was represented in the flag of 1606. Download the “Union Jack Assignment” in “Materials Needed” and follow the directions.
- The picture on this assignment sheet is of Fanny Burney.

Long Range Assignments

- There will be a test on the third week of February on the Elizabethan and Stuart Periods —no history this time. At that time the Guy Fawkes point will be given out. If the current king gets it, though, his subjects will have to endure another four weeks of tax tyranny unless someone spends money on raising an army! (The change in court will be on the last Friday in February.)
- By now you should have some vague idea of what you want to write about. Now I would like you to choose a specific person (monarch, prime minister, etc.) or event (war, battle, etc.) and be ready to tell me next week.
- The Classification and Division essay is due on the first Friday in February.
