

C is for Cottage Assignment 2

- Poetry Memorization: memorize stanzas one and two of the three-stanza poem by Edna St. Vincent Millay in the appendix of the student textbook.
- For handwriting, students should complete the second lesson in their italic handwriting book.
- Complete all of the material found in lesson 2.
- Students should complete Week 2 of dictation exercises below. The dictation should be completed neatly and in cursive (if the student was in a previous class where he learned cursive).
- Complete dictation. In class we have reviewed end marks, apostrophes and the ough words from Lesson 1, but parents may want to review once more before students complete the following dictation exercises. Note: Please check out the appendix in the student textbook: it will be an easy reference to use for reviewing phonics and vocabulary.

EXERCISE A

1. How does Tom's brother manage?
2. I had to laugh at the funny image!
3. After drinking a draught, he coughed.
4. The male cardinal has bright red plumage.
5. We put today's leftover pottage in the trough.

EXERCISE B

1. The boy's dog escaped the village.
2. Did Sam's dad have a rough voyage?
3. Does she have enough hot pottage?
4. Why are you coughing?
5. The pig's trough had scraps from today's meal.
