

Foundations

Assignment 10

- The picture on this assignment page is of King Alfred, who was forced to hide in a poor woman's cottage. The woman said the hungry king could have bread if he watched it bake. Alfred was so distressed about his kingdom, that he let the bread burn and was scolded by the woman. Alfred was England's "Darling" king. Watch this very short video on Alfred the Great.
- Study the vocabulary for King Alfred by Hamilton Wright Mabie in your study guide and answer the vocabulary questions; read the story in your reader and complete the study guide questions.
- Your new expository writing assignment will be due the third week of November. You can choose topics from the Writing Exercise at the end of Alexander the Great or at the end of part 2 of the Peloponnesian War.
- Read Select Poems by Robert Burns and complete the study guide material.
- Complete Poetry and Poetics 6.
- Memorize parts 1–3 of Isaac Watts's poem "Through Every Age Our Eternal God."
- Memorize Quotation 11.
- Memorize Spelling List 10.

Long Range Assignment

- Continue reading your book report book. The report will be due the first week in December.
