

Short Story Assignment 23

- Read the Warden, chapters 7–15 and complete all of the study guide material.
- Chapter 14 is one of my favorite chapters in Trollope's novel. It is a satire on the media. How appropriate is this chapter to today's world! Be able to discuss in class what aspects about the media Trollope is setting up to ridicule. Extra credit on test (5 points): Bring in a newspaper article that illustrates what Trollope is talking about in this chapter.
- Much of the vocabulary of the novel involves the Church of England, which many Americans might be unfamiliar with. Make sure that you are able to give a definition of the following terms: precentor, canon, bishop, archdeacon, benefice, cathedral, warden, almshouse. Look these words up in a dictionary if you do not know them.
- Below is a picture of Harrow, where Trollope was educated as a youth. Winston Churchill was also educated there.
- If you have not yet done so already, please send your narrative and send it by email!

Long Range Assignments
