Suggested Reading

Here is a book suggestion for this week. Remember that these books are for the benefits of parents to develop their child’s interest in reading, and they are not required for the class. Peter Spier. Bored—Nothing To Do! Doubleday, 1978. Just one of Spier’s ingenious creations, this book opens a window on the trouble that children can create when bored. Filled with whimsical illustrations, it captures the essence of childhood.
