

Assignment 15
Writing Seminar

- Continue working on your personal narrative. Remember to implement the techniques we learned in class; i.e., using figures of speech, details, description and dialog to suggest the theme.
- Read White's essay "Once More to the Lake" (a second time for many of you), and then read "Rainy Mountain," which I will post later on in the week. Compare it to White's essay and be able to talk about the essay's theme and its similarities to White's essay.
- The picture on the right is of E. B. White, author of "Once More to the Lake."
