

C is for Cottage

Assignment 32

Poetry

Do you have a poem that you like but we have not gone over in class? Bring it in this coming Friday (if you like) and read it! There is no poetry memorization this week; however, we will review the poems we already memorized in class.

Reading, Phonics and Grammar

Complete all of the material found in Lesson 32.

The picture on the right is of Charles Lamb

Handwriting

Complete Lesson 32 of your handwriting.

Dictation

Teachers should review the following before beginning the dictation: 1) ue words 2) igh words 3) quotation marks.

EXERCISE A

1. Dan said, "Use the right glue."
2. "Was it true," Bob asked, "that they had a fight?"
3. "The light made the statue look bright blue," she said.
4. "I need a tissue right now," she said.
5. The friends argued last night.

EXERCISE B

1. "Rescue him!" he yelled.
2. She said, "Open the flue and light a fire."
3. Carl said, "We took a walk along the avenue."
4. "If you continue, you will do all right," Jim said.
5. The sky at twilight was a strange hue of green.